

ANN M. CALLAHAN, PhD, LCSW
CV Synopsis

EDUCATION

Doctor of Philosophy in Social Work, University of Tennessee, Knoxville
August 2004, Dissertation: The Role of Demographic Diversity in Predicting Worker Psychological Safety https://trace.tennessee.edu/utk_graddiss/1961/

LICENSE

2000 – present: License in Clinical Social Work (LCSW), State of Tennessee, Department of Health

EXPERIENCE

- 2017 – present: Professor (tenured fall 2020, promoted fall 2022), Department of Social Work, Richmond, KY.
- 2019 – 2022: Founding MSW Program Director and Online Coordinator, Eastern Kentucky University, Department of Social Work, Richmond, KY.
- Previous administrative experience in other academic and practice settings.
- Practice in mental health (since 1993) and long-term care (since 2003)

TEACHING

- Extensive course development experience with emphasis on online instructional design based on Quality Matters standards
- Teaching experience across various institution types: community college, military college, land-grant research, private, and regional teaching
- Committed to collaborative, interdisciplinary mentorship that is outcomes-oriented

COURSESGraduate (G)

- Advanced Macro Practice, Advanced Organizational Theory and Practice, Integrative Micro Practice, Integrative Mezzo Practice, Integrative Field Practicum, Integrative Capstone, Introduction to Social Welfare Policies and Services, Practicum II, Stress Management and Self-Care, and Substance Misuse (dual offering for UG and G)

Undergraduate (UG)

- American Citizenship and Civic Life, Cultural Diversity and Social Justice, Foundations of Professional Ethics, Helping People in Crisis, Human Behavior in the Social Environment I/II, Human Diversity and Social Justice, Introduction to Social Work, Introduction to Social Welfare History, Practice with Groups and Families, Practice with Individuals (and a comparable course Social Work Practice I), Practice with Organizations and Communities (and a comparable course Practice III), Self-Awareness and Professional Development, Social Welfare Policy (also called Social Welfare Policy and Services), Social Work and Mental Health, Social Work Practice Methods (also called Orientation to Practice), Social Work Research Methods, Spiritual Caregiving (multi-disciplinary team taught), Spirituality and Health Care, Substance Misuse (dual offering for UG and G and a comparable course Social Work and Substance Abuse)

Learning Management Systems

- Blackboard, Canvas, Desire2Learn (BrightSpace), Edvance 360, and Moodle

PUBLICATIONS (nearly all as primary author)

- 10 peer-reviewed journal articles – 2 scholarship of teaching and learning (SoTL) and 1 under review
- 1 book
- 6 book contributions – 1 SoTL
- 29 book reviews
- 5 administrative reports
- 28 invited publications – 4 SoTL

PRESENTATIONS (nearly all as primary presenter)

- 31 juried presentations on the national level – 4 SoTL and 1 under review
- 31 invited presentations on the local and state levels – 4 SoTL

GRANTS

- 3 teaching grants funded ($6,500 total, not including in-kind awards)
- 4 research grants funded ($8,264 total, not including in-kind awards)

SERVICE

- Council on Social Work Education service completing 3 site visits, collaboration on 1 program accreditation (undergraduate), and lead on 1 program accreditation (graduate)
- Extensive professional, university, and community service (i.e., chairing committees; coordination of events; interdisciplinary work; and commitment to student support services, first-generation students, and online education)
- Administered surveys to inform/evaluate my work and for program planning (EKU Student Alumni Panel Needs Assessment, EKU Social Work Day Outcome Evaluations for 2019 and 2020, and Best Digital Advocacy Action Survey for 2018 and 2019)
- Reassigned time to engage in administrative duties related to traditional and nontraditional student recruitment/retention and program development/coordination in rural and urban settings (undergraduate and graduate level)

HONORS

- 5 interviews related to professional expertise – 1 SoTL
- Book reviewed in 7 journals and other work featured in 4 other outlets
- Induction into Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and received a Critical Thinking Teaching Award at Eastern Kentucky University

SELECT TRAINING

- 2017 – present: 30 Online Teaching and Learning Workshops facilitated by the Instructional Design Center (IDC), Office of eCampus Learning, EKU
- 2017 – 2018: Assessment Academy facilitated by Council on Social Work Education
- 2017: Online Course Development and Teaching Certificate Program facilitated by EKU IDC
- 2017: Applying the Quality Matters Rubric facilitated by EKU IDC